FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE May 23, 2006

FREE Summer Concert Series returns to the City of University Place on June 29

Stomp your feet to the rhythm of the beat! The Curran Apple Orchard Summer Concert Series will kick off the season with “The Islanders” steel drum band on June 29th, concerts take place every other Thursday beginning at 6:30pm and ending at 8pm. The Curran Apple Orchard is located at 3920 Grandview Drive West; bring your blanket or a folding chair, pack a picnic basket or purchase a Caribbean dinner, catered by Island Jamz Caribbean Cuisine at a reasonable fee.

Performing July 13th, the 133rd Army Band, playing patriotic songs and longtime favorites. On July 27th “Maia Santell & House Blend” will take the stage. On August 10th enjoy the sweet sounds of “Swinging Soiree” playing ballads, swing, Latin music and rock and roll. Rockin’ to the blues and rounding out the series on August 24th, “Tim Casey & the Bluescats.”

You are invited to dine out on the grass while enjoying the lively atmosphere; you are encouraged to relax on a warm summer evening in the beautiful setting of an apple orchard! And it’s all FREE to the public!

The Concert Series is sponsored by Columbia Bank, Curran Orchard Resource Committee (C.O.R.E.) and the City of University Place. Call (253) 460-2530 for additional concert information.
