University Place Duck Daze features parade, community garage sale and safety fair in Homestead Park on June 4

Duck, duck, treasure! Think of it as a new version of your old favorite game and get hunting for that perfect antique, plant or knick-knack at the annual Treasures in the Park event in Homestead Park on June 4, part of the annual University Place Duck Daze celebration.

The day starts with a Duck Parade at 10 a.m. traveling from 27th Street West and Bridgeport Way to City Hall at 37th and Bridgeport. Local dignitaries, marching bands and community groups decked out in their best duck dress make this a must see. Once there, take the time to peruse tables full of crafts and antiques, garage sale items and potted plants. Stop in at the food vendors and grab a bite to keep your energy up.

The entertainment schedule is as follows:

- 11 a.m. - Army Band.
- 11:30 a.m. - Teen Library Council reads children's stories.
- 12:30 p.m. - Normanna Men's Chorus
- 1:30 p.m. - TotemAires Barbershop group
- 2:30 p.m. - The Tacoma/Pierce County Humane Society pet adoption vehicle
- 3 p.m. - Accordionist Jim Leonard
- 3:30 p.m. - The Old Time Fiddlers

Don't forget to drop by the Public Safety Building just east of the park to take in the annual Safety Fair hosted by the police and fire departments. There will be tours of the station, equipment displays and you can get bike and skateboard helmets for the kids for just $5!

If you'd like to be on the other side of the event and sell some items, please call Ken Grassi at 627-7196 or 278-1946 and arrange for a 10-foot-by-10-foot booth space. Application forms are available at City Hall or on the city's website at www.CityofUP.com.
