Popular free summer concert series returns to University Place's Curran Apple Orchard starting June 30

Bring your picnic dinner and dine out on the grass as you listen to the sweet sounds of music in the Curran Apple Orchard this summer.

The concerts take place every other Thursday, starting June 30 with the 133rd Army Band playing patriotic songs and longtime favorites. Concerts start at 6:30 p.m. and end at 8 p.m. and they are free.

On July 14, Swinging Soiree takes the stage to play ballads, swing, Latin music and rock and roll.

Tim Casey and the Bluescats play rockin' blues on July 28 and the Tacoma Concert Band brings its Bach to Broadway repertoire to the orchard on August 11.

The 12-member Sonic Funk Orchestra rounds out the series on August 25, playing '70s and '80s rock and roll.

The Curran Apple Orchard is located at 3920 Grandview Drive West, near Curtis Junior High School. Should bad weather intrude on everyone's good time, the concerts will be moved inside to the Curtis High School cafeteria, located at 8425 40th St. W.

The concert series is sponsored by the Curran Orchard Resource Committee (C.O.R.E). Call 460-2530 for information on the events.
