

Dear Resident:

Thank you for your interest in serving the City of University Place as a member of one of our advisory commissions. Our City functions most effectively when citizens care enough to give of their time and expertise. People like you truly make this community great!

The commissions act in an advisory capacity to the City Council. Their feedback and recommendations are given much credence, and the Council maintains open lines of communication and discussion with these groups. It is truly an honor and a responsibility to be appointed to one of these bodies.

The City Council seeks candidates who:

- are residents of, or have business interests in University Place
- reflect the make-up and diversity of our community
- offer technical and/or professional expertise
- are passionate about serving the community

In addition to these general requirements, experience and knowledge in the specific area addressed by the advisory commission for which you are applying is a definite advantage. The Council seeks informed input from these groups, and your education and/or experience qualifies you to provide unique and insightful feedback and recommendations.

Information is being provided in this packet to help you determine your level of interest in filling an advisory commission vacancy. I urge you to read through the documents carefully. Additionally, you must attend a meeting of the commission in which you are interested. This will give you a good idea of the topics addressed, as well as how the group functions. The more informed you are, the better you will be able to judge your ability to contribute in a positive way.

Thank you again for your interest in serving University Place!

Sincerely,

Mayor Worthington

Nestled between the Cascade and Olympic mountain ranges, and hugging the sparkling waters of Puget Sound, University Place boasts scenic views, convenient access to regional destinations, and unmatched quality of life.

History

In the 1800's, the Methodist church sought a larger site for Puget Sound University (currently the University of Puget Sound). Through a combination of donated and purchased land, the Church obtained 420 acres near present day Lemons Beach and Parkway Loop. They designated 60 acres for the campus, and intended to fund its construction by selling the adjacent lots. The financial panic of 1893 devalued the land and excavation of the site halted. After being forfeited for non-payment of taxes, the lots were sold in 1901. The name "University Place" remained, however, along with a map of the planned campus.

Approximately 100 years after the community received its name, a movement began toward local government and local control. In November 1994, proponents succeeded in passing a ballot measure which established 7.86 square miles of unincorporated Pierce County into the City of University Place.

Form of Government

University Place was incorporated on August 31, 1995. It is governed by a COUNCIL/MANAGER form of government. The seven-member at-large City Council is directly elected by the citizens and serves for staggered four-year terms. The City Council establishes policy by enacting ordinances and resolutions determined to reflect the needs of the community. The Mayor is elected by the Council from among its members for a 2-year term and presides at City Council meetings. The Council appoints the City Manager, adopts the City budget, approves appropriations and contracts in the City's name, levies taxes, and enacts franchises. Several advisory commissions, made up of citizen volunteers, advise the City Council.

The City Manager is appointed by the City Council to serve as chief executive officer of the City, to manage daily business by directing the work of the City Staff (administration of personnel, policies, funds and programs), and to enforce the laws of the City. City services are provided by six major departments.

PLANNING COMMISSION

3609 Market Place West, Suite 200
University Place, WA 98466
PH: (253) 566-5656 FAX: (253) 460-2541

History: In December 1997, the City of University Place established a Planning Commission, following the implementation of an Interim Planning Commission in 1995. University Place Ordinance No. 338, amended by Ordinances Nos. 405 and 585 lay out the structure of the Commission. Specific items from these ordinances are highlighted below.

Purpose and Mission Statement: The Planning Commission advises the City Council on growth management, general land use and transportation planning, long range capital improvement plans, and other matters as directed by the City Council. The Commission also holds hearings on and develops a comprehensive plan for the City, makes recommendations to the Council on amendments to the Comprehensive Plan, the Zoning Code and Map, and the development regulations of the City. The Commission gathers public opinion by requesting citizen input at meetings and public hearings to formulate recommendations to the City Council.

Membership: Members are appointed to four-year terms by the Mayor, after confirmation by the City Council and serve without compensation. The seven members of the Planning Commission are comprised of City residents. The City Council may appoint one member who resides outside the City. To ensure a broad range of perspective, it is desirable, but not mandatory, that members are drawn from throughout the City and no more than two members shall be engaged in the same occupation, business, trade or profession.

Meetings: Meetings, other than trainings or field trips, are held in the City, are open to the public and comply with the Open Public Meetings Act. The Commission holds its regular meetings on the first and third Wednesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. at City Hall. Meetings held on a different date are considered special meetings. Joint meetings of the Council and Commission may also occur. While Commission members are encouraged to attend Council presentations and briefings on findings and recommendations, only the Commission Chair and/or Vice-Chair will present official opinion and recommendations of the Commission, unless another member is so designated. Members are expected to attend all meetings. If an absence is unavoidable, the member needs to notify the Commission Chair or City staff. This action will classify the absence as "excused". Positions shall be deemed vacated if a member is absent for two unexcused regular meetings or absent for more than 50% of the Commission meetings in a calendar year.

Voting: A quorum is necessary to act on any matter before the Commission. Four members of the Commission constitute a quorum. Any recommendation that a majority of the Commission believes should be forwarded to the City Council shall be so forwarded and shall include the minority opinion. All Commissioners present are required to vote. Failure to vote shall be deemed an affirmative vote. Each voting member present shall vote on all questions put to the Commission unless a conflict of interest or an appearance of fairness question under the State law is present.

Organization: The Commission elects its own Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson. The Vice-Chairperson presides in the absence of the Chairperson. Both are voting members of the Commission. The Commission determines its own rules of transaction of business and keeps written records of its meetings, attendance, and recommendations. These records become public records and are filed with the City Clerk.
