NORTHWEST MEDICAL ARTS TO HOST TRUNK OR TREAT IN OCTOBER

VILLAGE AT CHAMBERS BAY PARKING METERS GO LIVE SEPT. 3

Parking meters along Market Place West in the Village at Chambers Bay go live at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 3. The meters will be active from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on weekdays and Saturdays.

Parkers can pay with coins, credit card or the PaybyPhone app to cover the cost of $1 for an hour or $1.50 for the entire 90 minutes.

Parking is free on Sundays and holidays as are ADA spots. There are 10 free 15-minute parking spots in addition to 500 free parking stalls in the Village parking garage and free spots on Bridgeport Way.

The metered parking spots are intended to ensure equitable access and turnover of parking spaces in the Village for all patrons. For more information, watch this brief video.

Northwest Medical Arts at 5350 Orchard St. W. will host a free Trunk or Treat celebration on Saturday, Oct. 26 from 2-5 p.m. Costumes are encouraged for a truly "BOO-YA" fun time.

Families are invited to enjoy games and tasty treats while exploring goods from local makers. If your business is interested in participating in this event, contact NW Medical Art's Heather Hall.

Is your business planning any fall or Halloween promotions? Let Becky Metcalf know so we can include that information in future issues of Talking UP.

CITY HALL CLOSED FOR LABOR DAY

City of University Place Offices will be closed on Monday, Sept. 2 in observance of the Labor Day holiday. They will reopen at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 3.
