Up to $20,000 Working Washington Business Relief Grants

Governor Jay Inslee announced an additional $70 million for business grants last week. $50 million of that is for a new round of Working Washington business grants. Applications will be accepted beginning Tuesday, December 1.

Business Qualifications:

- Small businesses with annual revenues of $5 million or less in 2019.

AND

- Businesses in the sectors that are most impacted by the recent public health measures as well as businesses in sectors that have experienced significant, cumulative impacts. Examples include full-service restaurants, fitness centers, bowling alleys, and music and event venues.
- Certain nonprofits may also be eligible if they have a primary business activity that falls into a similar category as noted above. Example - a nonprofit full-service restaurant or nonprofit music venue.

If the State Department of Commerce is able to fund all the eligible applicants from the priority pool, and funds remain, Commerce may be able to provide grants to additional businesses or nonprofits from other sectors or who have annual revenues larger than $5 million.

Application Information

Priority will be given to applications received by December 10, 2020.

There are documents and data that businesses need to assemble in advance of applying.

Check out all the details at the Department of Commerce Business Grants webpage.
